

Destiny Springs Behavioral Healthcare

Fact Sheet

- Destiny Springs Healthcare, a world-class behavioral healthcare facility, is a 90-bed, 67,566 square-foot behavioral health facility set to open in early-fall 2018.
- The $24.5 million facility will be located at 17300 N. Dysart Road at the N. Dysart Rd. and W. Bell Rd intersection in Surprise.
- Services will include both inpatient and outpatient treatment for adolescents, adults and geriatric patients.
- Longtime Central Arizona resident and behavioral healthcare expert Martin Newman, M.D. is the founder of Destiny Springs.
- Independently owned, Destiny Springs is managed by Diamond Healthcare, a nationwide behavioral healthcare company committed to providing high quality care to individuals in need.
- Burton Carriker will lead Destiny Springs as CEO. Carriker brings 35 years of experience in behavioral healthcare services to the new Surprise facility.
- Destiny Springs will employ 250 medical, support and administrative professionals at full operation.
- Services offered at Destiny Springs include individualized treatment plans, medically monitored detoxification, recreational therapy, psychopharmacology, medication management, among others.

